

Disaster Recovery: The Pentagon Library Experience

Last April FLICC hosted a day-long program on the disaster recovery efforts at the Pentagon Library following the attacks of September 11, 2001.

A video of this important event is now available in a three-tape set for just $70/$75*. Sessions on the videos feature

- LaDonna Kirkland, Pentagon Library, on the Pentagon Library experience
- Dean McKinney, BMS, on working as the Pentagon Library's recovery vendor
- Werner Haun, Library of Congress, on irradiated mail
- Eliza Gilligan, Smithsonian Institution, with a special session on mold
- a panel discussion on disaster recovery contracts and lessons learned.

To order this special video, complete the form below and fax this page to FLICC at 202-707-4825 or call 202-707-4800 for more information. Orders will be shipped four weeks after order.
